

Groupe 1:
Need based PPR vaccine
availability through PPP

Needs, benefits, and impacts:

- Needs: Vaccines in suitable quantities and high quality, awareness of importance of vaccination.
- Benefits: disease control by mass vaccination, food security.
- Impacts: strong national economy, reduce business risk, empowering one health concept, disease control and eradication steps.

Stakeholder analysis, mapping and engagements

- Stake holders: ministry of (agriculture, trade, health), Association, Importers, manufactures, livestock owners, services providers, marketing and programming companies, public.
- Mapping: governmental regulations, contract, provide vaccines, monitoring before and after.

Roles and Responsibilities

- Roles of ministry of agriculture: Regulations, contracts, framework, evaluation, information sources, delegation.
- Roles of importers and manufactures provide vaccines with sustainable availability, platform media, training sessions, workshop.

Initiating and establishing the PPP

- transactional partnership
- Contract to availability of service
- Ministry of agricultural
- Public sector will provide the technical specification & payment of services cost.
- Private sector will provide logistical inputs include vaccine & mobilization.

Risk management, monitoring and evaluation

- Importing is the one of most challenges for governments, cost, transportation, refrigeration, expiration dates, conflict of interests, epidemiological status, contract cancellation, out of stock in mother company.
- Evaluation before and after the vaccination process.

